

“Where Do the Children Play?” Documentary Public Showings

9 events: Updated Sept. 15, 2010

Library	Community	Event Details	Date	Time
Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library, 405 Main Street	Yarmouth	The first Mid-Week Break of the fall will be a showing of the PBS documentary Where Do the Children Play? on Wednesday, Sept. 15 from 12 to 1 p.m. in the Program Room at the Yarmouth library. During the viewing, there will be a nature-inspired craft time for children of parents attending the film.	Wed., Sept. 15	12 pm
Isaiah W. Wilson Memorial Library, 405 Main Street	Digby	Join us for a viewing of the movie “Where Do the Children Play?” The documentary is for any adult who is interested in helping to connect more children and youth with nature for all the benefits it brings.	Wed., Sept. 22	6:30 pm
New Glasgow Public Library (Community Room), 182 Dalhousie Street	New Glasgow	A screening of the Emmy winning documentary, “Where do the Children Play?” will be presented. Produced by the Alliance for Childhood and PBS, the film examines the social and technological trends that some believe rob children of their right to spontaneous play, especially outdoors. Parents and caregivers interested in helping children connect with nature are invited to attend and explore this growing field of thought which addresses the need for mental and physical activity. For more information, please contact the Programming Department at 755-6031 or visit us online at www.parl.ns.ca .	Wed., Sept. 22	7 pm
Rosa M. Harvey Middleton & Area Library, 45 Gates Ave.	Middleton	Parents and preschoolers! Come play with us. Outdoor play and craft for preschoolers, film and discussion for parents. Takes place at the Rosa M. Harvey Middleton & Area Library, 45 Gates Ave. at 11 am. Light snacks provided. Outdoor play indoors if it rains!	Fri., Sept. 24	11 am
McKay Memorial Library, 254 Water Street	Shelburne	The library will be showing the movie “Where Do the Children Play?” for adults and host activities for children of all ages about being active and learning about the natural world around them.	Sat., Sept. 25	12:30 pm
Barrington Municipal Library, 3533 Highway 3	Barrington Passage	The library will be showing the movie “Where Do the Children Play?” for adults and host activities for children of all ages about being active and learning about the natural world around them.	Sat. Sept. 25	12:30 pm
Bridgewater Library, 547 King Street	Bridgewater	The library will be showing the movie “Where Do the Children Play?”	Sat., Sept. 25	10:30 am

continued...

A partnership of:

With support from:

September 20-26, 2010

www.takemeoutsideweek.ca

Bridgewater Library booth at the South Shore Exhibition Grounds, Bridgewater	Bridgewater	The library will be showing the movie "Where Do the Children Play?"	Sat., Sept. 25	2:00pm
Bridgewater Library, 547 King Street	Bridgewater	The library will be showing the movie "Where Do the Children Play?"	Sat., Oct. 2	10:30 am

A partnership of:

With support from:

