

Creating Bridges: Multiculturalism and Diversity in the 21st Century

Créer des ponts: les cultures multiples et la diversité au 21e siècle

October 13 - 15, 2010

Best Western Chocolate Lake Hotel

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Sponsored by:

And:

Contributors:

The Multicultural Association of Nova Scotia (MANS) is hosting Creating Bridges: Multiculturalism and Diversity in the 21st Century (Créer des ponts: les cultures multiples et la diversité au 21e siècle) in Halifax, Nova Scotia at the Best Western Chocolate Lake Hotel from October 13 - 15, 2010. Creating Bridges addresses the themes of multiculturalism and diversity within a range of communities and against the backdrop of the 21st century. How can we create the bridges that close the distance between us? What tools do we need, and how can we ensure that our journey is a safe one? Sessions address the following topics: Multi-Faiths, Youth, Business, Health, Immigration and Community.

Speakers

Dr. Ayman Al-Yassini, Executive Director, Canadian Race Relations Foundation;
Dr. Leslie Oliver, President of the Black Cultural Society of Nova Scotia;
Honourable Percy Paris, Minister, Department of Tourism, Culture and Heritage

* Registration Closes Soon! ****

Registration details (including student rates) and forms can be downloaded from <http://www.mans.ns.ca/conference>. For further questions, please contact MANS at (902) 423-6534 or by email at events@mans.ns.ca.